Behaviour Policy

Eagles Gymnastics Club provides a fun and safe environment for children to learn gymnastics skills and improve their general fitness. We expect all our gymnasts to listen to their coaches and behave to their fellow gymnasts and their coaches in an acceptable manner.

Gymnastics can be a high risk sport due to the equipment used, therefore any silly or poor behaviour is unacceptable at any times as could result in health and safety being compromised for all the gymnasts and result in injury.

All the gymnasts need to listen to instructions from their coach before they use any equipment. No gymnasts should be on any equipment before their coach has arrived at the equipment.

Poor behaviour from a few individuals spoils the session for all the gymnasts and not only compromises the safety of that gymnast but of all those in their group. If coaches are constantly dealing with silly behaviour, they are not concentration on teaching and developing the gymnasts in their group.

1. If any gymnasts behave in a silly, inappropriate or unsafe manner they will be given a time out.
2. Once rejoining their group, if they again behave inappropriately they will be referred to the head coach who will decide if and when the gymnast may rejoin the session. The head coach will decide whether it is necessary to speak to parents or carers.
3. If a gymnast has been spoken to more than twice and has been asked to sit out, parents or carers will be contacted to discuss the issues.
4. If any gymnast's behaviour has been unacceptable for three sessions, even after their parents or carers have been informed, then there is a strong chance that they will be asked to leave the club. If this happens there will be no refund of registration fees or term fees. Their British Gymnastics membership however can be transferred to another club.
